Why Russia is waging war against Ukraine?

Introduction

20 years ago, Ukraine divorced her ex-husband (Russia) and she took their children (Crimea, Luhansk and Donetsk). And the ex-husband (Russia) still treated her really nice. He paid off more than 200 billion debts for Ukraine. But Ukraine started dating another man (USA) and started attacking her ex-husband. But her kids were very close to their dad Russia, so Russia took back one of the kids (Crimea). After that ,Ukraine lost her child felt really scared so she wanted to rely on her new boyfriend, (the United States)so that she would have more power against Russia. However, the US is a playboy, even though he's worried that Russian will be the most handsome guy in this town instead of him but he still doesn't want to be in charge of this, he just wants to use Ukraine to counterbalance Russia. Over time, Ukraine began to use violence to her two other grown children (Luhansk and Donetsk) . But the good thing is the US will send Ukraine food (weapons and ammunition), after getting enough food, Ukraine trust the US more and starts to want to leave her ex-husband with her children and live with the US and join his gang NATO. It is worth mentioning that NATO guys especially like to play with fire, but there are many trees in front of Russia's house. Russia does not want NATO to set fire to his tree. So he warned NATO not to come near his house, and NATO ignored his warning for five whole times. Few months ago NATO attempted to play fire in Ukraines house, which is next door to Russia. This touches Russia's bottom line and totally pissed him off , so Russia goes out to destroy the Ukraine's home and let the other two grown children to live on their own

.The irony is that in this war, Ukraine did not receive any military support except for weapons from NATO and her boyfriend US

Ukraine

It Started in 2014:

2014

Relations between the two countries have been hostile since the 2014 Revolution of Dignity, which toppled Ukraine's elected president Viktor Yanukovich and his supporters, because he refused to sign a political association and free trade agreement with the European Union that enjoyed majority support in Ukraine's parliament.

Ukraine's post-revolutionary government wished to commit the country to a future within the EU and NATO, rather than continue to play the delicate diplomatic game of balancing its own economic and security interests with those of Russia, the EU, and NATO members.

How it started:

In 2019, amendments were made to the Constitution of Ukraine, which enshrined the irreversibility of the country's strategic course towards EU and NATO membership

Throughout 2021 and 2022, Russian military buildup on the border of Ukraine has escalated tensions between the two countries and strained bilateral relations, with the United States sending a strong message that invasion would be met with dire consequences for Russia's economy.

On 24 February 2022, Russia invaded Ukraine, which prompted Ukraine to break diplomatic ties with its eastern neighbour.

Question: Was Ukraine wrong to be wanting a future with the European Union and NATO?

Russia

Reasons for starting the war

Reason 1 : Ukrainian government attacks Russians in Eastern Ukraine

Ukraine Nazis

During the Ukrainian Civil War, in order to vent the anger of being defeated by the Eastern Ukrainian militias, Ukrainian neo-Nazis created many horrific massacres.

On September 24, 28 and 30, 2014, three mass graves were discovered successively in Donetsk region. After investigation, it was confirmed that these were killed by the Ukrainian National Guard and the neo-Nazi armed "Azov Battalion". Some of the civilians who were buried and shot dead before the retreat still had signs of being violated.

From August to October 2021, five civilian "mass graves" were discovered in the village of Slavianosebsk and other places.

Reason 2: Ukraine wants to join NATO

What is NATO?

NATO stand for North Atlantic Treaty Organization is an international organization created by European and North American countries to achieve defense cooperation. It has a large number of nuclear weapons and an army is an important military force in the West.

Why Putin does not want Ukraine to join NATO?

- Russia needs a strategic shield.
- NATO has repeatedly broken its commitments with Russia.(Ukraine also)

Question:

Why do you think Putin recognized the independence of the two Eastern
Ukrainian regions
before attacking
Ukraine?.

Never think that war , not matter how necessary ,nor how justified , is not a crime
